

FEDERAL NOTICE POSTING REQUIREMENTS

Employers are required to post official Equal Employment Opportunity notices prohibiting job discrimination based on race, color, sex, national origin, religion, age, equal pay and disability. Notices should be placed in prominent and accessible places where readily observable by employees and job applicants. Printed notices should be made available to persons with disabilities, as needed. Notices can be recorded on an audio cassette or read to applicants or employees.