

Total Compensation Information for State Employees

The Division of Personnel Services (DPS) website: <http://www.da.ks.gov/ps/>

This website includes information and links regarding the job classification specifications and pay plans for classified employees, as well as the regulations that govern benefits such as holidays, sick leave and annual leave for all classified and many unclassified employees.

The Kansas Health Policy Authority (KHPA) website: <http://www.khpa.ks.gov/>

This website includes information and links regarding the different types of health insurance plans available to State employees, as well as employees from other participating public employers.

The Kansas Public Employees Retirement System (KPERS) website: <http://www.kpers.org/>

This website includes information on the retirement systems and disability coverage for all public employers, including all State employees (classified and unclassified from all Branches of government).